Places of rest and refreshment are found sometimes where we least expect them.
In the midst of the chaos of life
when we're too burdened to lift our heads.
God may throw a stone in our path
over which we stumble upon new vision:
O God, help us to see these stones
as objects of blessing, not of cursing.
Guide our steps through the doors
where a welcome and shared bread awaits, and help us provide such refreshment
for others you place in our lives.

Yvonne Morland, from 50 New Prayers from the Iona Community

In your prayers this week please remember ...

- Our churches in this Benefice that we continue to grow in faith and discipleship;
- church leaders everywhere that they receive support and encouragement in their role as leaders;
- victims of crime and their relatives;
- those who are no longer able to join us for worship;-
- children starting a new school year, especially those going to school for the first time or starting at a different school;
- emergency responders who deal with international incidents, particularly those travelling to Nepal;-
- the bereaved and all those facing painful anniversaries.
