Hewenden Benefice Fantasy Football competition 2025/2026 season – message from Pauline Stern

"66 people from across the Benefice and Diocese entered the competition this season with folk from all four areas of the Benefice represented in the top four places in the final.

I hope that all those who participated enjoyed being part of the competition. Despite the fact that my own choices left me fighting for (and just losing my grasp on) the wooden spoon, I think I have coped with the challenge of taking on Richard Burge's weekly spreadsheet. Richard has supported me throughout the process for which I am very grateful, especially when it came to the FA cup and the play offs. If anyone else feels equal to taking over the challenge for next season I will be very grateful to them and give them every assistance."

Please email me if you'd like to 'have a go'. Pstern155@gmail.com

Prayer House Group The Prayer House Group will meet at Cullingworth Vicarage on Monday 15th June at 7pm.

In your prayers this week please remember ...

- All those who lead and prepare worship in our churches;
- Revd Daniel and his family;
- Aid agencies who provide humanitarian aid in conflict zones;
- to seek a spirit of calm and peace within ourselves if dealing with conflict;
- local undertakers who provide vital support at times of bereavement;
- to pray that we may grow in faith and find ways to share that faith in our communities.
- The bereaved and all those facing painful anniversaries.
