Quote of the week: - "October is proof that change can be beautiful."

- Unknown

With churches drawn from the Anglican, Catholic, Pentecostal, Charismatic, Orthodox and Lutheran traditions, as well as Free Churches, Quakers and others, Churches Together England (CTE) unites one of the broadest range of churches in the whole of Europe. This in turn highlights the importance of unity amidst diversity in the Christian faith. CTE engages in various outreach programmes and interfaith initiatives, promoting dialogue and collaboration among different faith communities. The vision of CTE is to create the space in which productive collaboration and mutual understanding can grow, so that we, as churches, work more closely together in our great task of sharing in God's mission and making the Gospel of Christ known in our nation. CTE's strapline is: One in Christ Jesus, engaged in God's mission, empowered by the Spirit.

Eco-Church Community Garden – its that time of year to tidy up, cut back, weed and generally prepare the garden for winter. There's going to be a meet up next Saturday, 25th October, 9.00-12.00 midday to try and get as many jobs as possible done. Please come along and lend a hand, even if it's for a short time, or making a cuppa for the gardeners! Please let Rob know if you are able to come along.

The Men's group met recently at St John's for the annual darts competition. Everyone enjoyed a Fish and Chips tea before battling it out to be the Men's Group Darts Champion. Andy Cartwright was the eventual victor. Thanks to Robert Smith for arranging the food and to St John's for hosting the event.

In your prayers this week please remember ...

- Revds Alison and Liz in this period of vacancy, together with those who are also carrying extra responsibilities at this time;
- the work of Churches Together in England in promoting unity amidst diversity;
- all those involved in negotiations of peace, especially within the Middle East at this fragile time;
- the volunteers at Food Banks and the people who are supported through their work;
- the villagers who are transported to their various medical appointments through the volunteer drivers scheme;
- All those who come into our buildings whether for worship or social activities;
- The bereaved and those facing painful anniversaries.
